North Dakota Council on the Arts Announces the Winners of the Poetry Out Loud State Finals

The North Dakota Council on the Arts is pleased to announce that the first place winner of the North Dakota State Poetry Out Loud: National Recitation Contest is Karson Pederson of Watford City High School in Watford City, ND. The second place winner is Brianna Anderson of Shanley High School in Fargo, ND. Third place was awarded to Kaley Schwab of Mandan High School in Mandan, ND. Bethany Brumbaugh of Cavalier High School in Cavalier, and Sam Hager of St. Mary's Central High School in Bismarck also placed in the top five. The competition was presented in partnership with The National Endowment for the Arts (NEA) and the Poetry Foundation. The state finals competition took place on Tuesday, March 15, at the North Dakota Heritage Center in Bismarck, ND. Karson Pederson will advance to the National Finals in Washington, DC on April 27, 2011, where a total of $50,000 in scholarships and school stipends, with at least a $20,000 college scholarship for the Poetry Out Loud National Champion, will be awarded.

Poetry Out Loud is a national arts education program that encourages the mastery of great poetry by offering educational materials and a dynamic competition to high schools across the country. Poetry Out Loud uses a pyramid structure. Beginning at the classroom level, winners advance to the school-wide competition, then to the state capital competition, and ultimately to the National Finals in Washington, DC.

At the state competition, Karson recited the poems Mrs. Caldera's House of Things and Domestic Violence; Brianna recited the poems Cartoon Physics, Part 1 and Bright Star, Would I Were Steadfast as Thou Art; and Kaley recited the poems A Dream Within a Dream and The River of Bees. All the contestants recited works they selected from an anthology of more than 400 classic and contemporary poems. The NEA and Poetry Foundation created a standards-based teacher's guide, a comprehensive website, and a CD featuring poetry recitations by well-known actors and writers such as Anthony Hopkins, Alyssa Milano, N. Scott Momaday, and Rita Dove.

Emcee Debra Marquart and Poetry Out Loud Coordinator Linda Ehreth, presented the awards to the participants. All participating contestants received a $25 book store gift card, certificate of participation, an engraved dog tag necklace and an engraved bookmark. As first place winner, Karson also received a trophy, medallion, $200, an additional $25 gift card, plus an all-expenses-paid trip to Washington, DC, and her school will receive a $500 stipend for the purchase of poetry books. As second place winner, Brianna also received a trophy, medallion, $100, an additional $25 gift card, plus $200 for her school library. As third place winner, Kaley also received a trophy, medallion, and an additional $25 gift card. First, second and third place winners also received a fused glass sun catcher made by North Dakota artist, Jason Lindell of Park River.

Open to the public a Coffee House and Open Mic event was held between the semi-finals and finals round. This event was coordinated and facilitated by Dania Farrah and Julia Balliet from Bismarck High School, with assistance from the Bismarck Lit Club. Students from participating schools, visiting students, adults, and teachers alike took part in this event.

The North Dakota state competition judges included: Janelle Masters, Dean of Academic Affairs, Bismarck State College; Nita K. Ritzke, Ph.D., Associate Professor of Humanities, University of Mary; Bill Thomas, Director of Radio, Prairie Public; and the accuracy judge was Jan Webb, Executive Director, North Dakota Council on the Arts. Debra Marquart, author/songwriter and Professor of English at Iowa State University was the event Emcee. Debra entertained the audience with a selection of her poems and songs. Live entertainment during the semi-finals was provided by Trio Apollo of Bismarck.

About the Poetry Foundation

The Poetry Foundation, publisher of Poetry magazine, has embarked on an ambitious plan to bring the best poetry before the largest possible audience. In the coming year, the Foundation will launch a major new poetry website and sponsor an unprecedented study to understand poetry's place in American culture. Founded in Chicago by Harriet Monroe in 1912, Poetry is the oldest monthly devoted to verse in the English-speaking world. Harriet Monroe's "Open Door" policy, set forth in Volume I of the magazine, remains the most succinct statement of Poetry's mission: to print the best poetry written today, in whatever style, genre, or approach.

About the National Endowment for the Arts

The National Endowment for the Arts is a public agency dedicated to supporting excellence in the arts – both new and established – bringing the arts to all Americans, and providing leadership in arts education. Established by Congress in 1965 as an independent agency of the federal government, the Endowment is the nation's largest annual funder of the arts, bringing great art to all 50 states, including rural areas, inner cities, and military bases.
